KATHRYN PROCTOR DUAX

Kathryn Proctor Duax, professor emerita of music at the University of Wisconsin - Eau Claire, taught for 37 years and served as Coordinator of the Voice and Choral Area. Following her retirement from UW – Eau Claire, she enjoyed teaching for one year at the University of Texas at San Antonio. She holds degrees from Austin College, the University of Minnesota, and a Doctor of Musical Arts from the University of Iowa.

Dr. Proctor Duax has performed with the Minnesota Orchestra, the Milwaukee Symphony, the Florentine Opera, the Minnesota Bach Society, the Saint Paul Chamber Orchestra, and Dallas Summer Musicals. Her students are successful teachers and performers, including a Metropolitan Opera winner and international artists in opera and music theater.

Dr. Proctor Duax has served on the Eau Claire Area School District Board since 2009 and she also serves on the Eau Claire Public Schools Foundation Board. She is past president of the National Association of Teachers of Singing. Having been a teacher herself, she loves supporting education in the Eau Claire School District to help all children succeed.
