1. Election of Officers

- Chair: Jenna Murphy
- Vice Chair: Rob Geske (filling in, until filled)
- Secretary: Stephanie Rohe

2. Welcome and News from the schools

- Positive Feedback: Fewer quarantines compared to other districts, feedback regarding supporting the mask mandate, and an increased number of kids utilizing the virtual school
- Needs: Concerns with the lack of communication during quarantine and concerns with current bus size and class size
- Questions:
  - Will there be an onsite COVID vaccination clinic for children ages 6-12?
  - Is there a maximum class size and where do you find that information?

3. A Learner Outcomes

- Jim Schmidt provided background regarding this group being a Learner Profile Focus Group for the district. The focused will be on learner skills. "What do our children need to strive in the world?"
- ALP-Lori McEwen ECASD Learner Profile Visioning Session
  - Welcome and Introduction
  - Review ECASD Stakeholder Priorities
    - Explore ECASD Learner Profile
      - Reviewed Drafted Learner Profile and Drafted Progressions
      - Small Groups Activity Feedback provided regarding the Learner Profile and Progression
  - Closing and Next Step
    - Feedback: Overall, members shared positive feedback. One member stated that they "think it is a good project."

4. Superintendent's Report – Mike Johnson

- a. Provided update regarding supporting the social and emotional wellbeing of students during quarantine. They have encouraged teachers to move towards increasing the contact (seesaw, canvas, Microsoft Teams, etc.) they have with students who are in quarantine.
- b. Superintendent Johnson will address the question regarding the COVID 19 vaccine clinic at his upcoming meeting with the Health Department.
- c. Provided feedback on class size. There is no mandated maximum class size, there is a “suggested” class size.
- d. Encouraged families to continue to connect with Student Transit regarding busing concerns.
- e. Assured members that the district will continue to take COVID mitigation steps. These steps appear to be effective.
- f. Shared that an area of focus will be on addressing concerns with students' mental health and learner loss.

Next Meeting: Tuesday, November 9, 2021

Future Focus Area: This counsel will be utilized for feedback regarding identifying ways to utilize funding given in response to the COVID 19 pandemic.
