

CHARLES VUE

Charles Vue, the Associate Director of Multicultural Affairs at University of Wisconsin - Eau Claire, came to Eau Claire from Laos with his family in 1978 at the age of 13. He graduated from Memorial High School and earned degrees from UW-Eau Claire (1989) and UW-Madison (1997). He was employed as a social worker for the Eau Claire County Department of Human Services from 1990 to 1998 before joining the University. Charles currently assists incoming and currently enrolled college students to successfully graduate from the university. Charles Vue is a father of three children. Charles and his wife have been active members of the Eau Claire community for the last 36 years. They take pride in calling Eau Claire home because of the educational opportunities they received from the Eau Claire public schools.
