MISSION STATEMENT

To prepare all students for post secondary success.

COMMUNITY

Eau Claire (French for "Clear Water") is located at the confluence of the Eau Claire and Chippewa rivers, 90 miles east of Minneapolis/St. Paul, and 247 miles northwest of Milwaukee. The population of Eau Claire is 65,000 with a county population of 93,142.

Founded as a logging community, Eau Claire has evolved into a regional center for health, education, government, manufacturing, professional, and retail services in Western Wisconsin. As the site of two colleges, the Eau Claire community values academic excellence and student performance.
