

North High School

Dance Guest Permission Form

Any North student who wishes to bring (1) guest to a school dance must complete this form and return it to the North Main Office for approval one week prior to the dance. Failure to turn this form in one week in advance might prohibit the guest from attending. Once this form is approved by North administration, the North student will pick up this form in the front office and present it in order to purchase a ticket for the guest. All tickets must be purchased by the Friday before the dance.

For guests to attend, please note:

- Middle school students and adults who have been out of high school more than one year may not attend.
- The guest must be accompanied by the North student indicated below as they enter the dance.
- The guest must bring a school ID or driver's license and a dance ticket for admittance.
- If the North student or the guest are asked to leave the dance for any reason, both must leave.
