

Ch. 13 Terms (p. 367-402)
Reformation & Religious Warfare in the 16th Century

Name _____

Reformation:

Christian/Northern Humanism

Erasmus

Thomas More

Utopia

Church's abuses:

Martin Luther

Indulgences

justification by faith

John Tetzel

Peasants' War

Transubstantiation

consubstantiation

Charles V

Habsburg-Valois War

Diet of Augsburg

Schmalkaldic League

Peace of Augsburg & its importance:

Ulrich Zwingli

Henry VIII

Act of Supremacy

Edward VI

Book of Common Prayer

Mary Tudor

John Knox

John Calvin

Predestination

Counter-Catholic Reformation:

Society of Jesus

Ursuline Order of Nuns

Council of Trent

Roman Inquisition

Index of Prohibited Books

Huguenots

Wars of Religion:

St. Bartholomew's Day Massacre

War of 3 Henry's

Henry IV

Edict of Nantes

Phillip II

Council of Troubles

William of Orange/Silent

Puritans

Elizabeth I

Act of Uniformity

Francis Drake

Defeat Spanish Armada

Name the author, explain the subject matter, & what is the historical significance of the following works?

The Imitation of Christ

Ninety-five Theses

The Institutes of the Christian Religion

Appeal to the Christian Nobility of the German Nation