

Ch. 21 Reaction, Revolution, & Romanticism Assignment

Complete the Following Sentences:

1. At the Congress of Vienna, Austria's _____, guided by the principle of _____, sought to restore dynasties and create a _____ of power.
2. By the Treaty of Adrianople, Turkey agreed to let _____, _____, and _____ decide the fate of Greece. In 1830 they declared her _____.
3. Following the _____ against his accession, Russia's Nicholas I strengthened his _____, making it a spy organization with sweeping powers.
4. After the study of population growth by _____ called into question the idea of human progress, the study of wages by _____ called into question the power of any state to make man's life better.
5. Flora Tristan advocated a utopian synthesis of socialism and _____ in which men and women would live in _____.
6. The French Revolution of 1848 deposed the conservative king _____ and established a Second Republic under President _____.
7. The Metropolitan policemen of Paris, created under the leadership of Louis-Maurice _____, were called simply _____ and carried only a _____ by day and a _____ by night.
8. Romantic literature featured a range of subjects, from the Scottish historical novels of Sir _____ to the strange tale of Frankenstein by _____.

Match the Following Words with their Definitions:

- _____ 1. Bourbons
- _____ 2. Edmund Burke
- _____ 3. Whigs
- _____ 4. Thomas Malthus
- _____ 5. David Ricardo
- _____ 6. Charles Fourier
- _____ 7. July Revolution
- _____ 8. "June Days"
- _____ 9. Robert Peel
- _____ 10. Eugene Delacroix

- A. Party that attracted moneyed industrial groups
- B. Advocated cooperative socialism to solve economic problems
- C. Resulted in the overthrow of Louis-Philippe
- D. Their restoration fulfilled Metternich's principle of legitimacy
- E. Romantic artist with passion for color and exotic themes
- F. Argued that wages rise only as population declines
- G. Created London's Metropolitan Police Force
- H. Spokesman for evolutionary conservatism
- I. Resulted in the overthrow of Charles X
- J. Argued that population growth mitigated against human progress