The Eau Claire Area School District will host three of the same informational sessions for families with incoming Kindergarten students interested in learning more about the Spanish Dual Immersion program. Sessions will be at the Longfellow Elementary library as follows:

Tuesday, Dec. 10, 7:00 am-8:00 am

Monday, Dec. 16, 5:30 pm-6:30 pm

Saturday, Jan. 11, 9:00 am-10:00 am

Please contact Brianna Smit, English Learners coordinator, at 715-852-3140 for more information about the Spanish Dual Immersion program.

The Culinary Arts 2 class at Memorial High School partnered with ZA 51 to develop the recipe for the December Pizza for a Cause.

The students worked as a group to create a recipe, tested the recipes and had the pizzas judged. The winning pizza is a Chicken with Balsamic Drizzle created by students Laine Brown and Codey Steuernagel. One dollar from every Pizza for a Cause sold in December will be donated to a local non-profit.

Contact culinary instructor Ashley King at 715-852-1625 for more information.

Twice each year Roosevelt Elementary students participate in Reading Is Fundamental and receive free books. Funds for the books are donated by the school's business partner Nestle'. On Wednesday, December 11, classes will go to the art room throughout the day, select a book and spend a few minutes reading their new book in the IMC . Since this will be the 65th day of the 65th year of Roosevelt they will be celebrating with a party theme. Students and staff will wear Roosevelt shirts from the past 65 years and the PTA will provide treats. Please contact partnership coordinator Tammy Rud at 715-852-4707 for details.

DeLong Middle School and the ECASD Administration Building are partnering with Children's Wisconsin Eau Claire Community Services on The Giving Project this winter. Students, staff, families and community volunteers are sponsoring 17 local families, including 40 young children. Tags are chosen which represent needed items which include diapers, wipes, socks, books and more. Student Council members from DeLong will visit the Administration Building on Tuesday, December 17, from 8 am-11 am to gift wrap the items that come in from that location. Please contact Teri Piper Thompson, DeLong partnership coordinator, at 715-852-4907 for more information.
