

Phil Lyons
Vice Chancellor, Administrative and Student Life Services
University of Wisconsin-Stout

Phil Lyons is vice chancellor and chief business officer of University of Wisconsin-Stout. Phil joined UW-Stout in 2007 as assistant vice chancellor of Student Life Services. He assumed the role of vice chancellor in 2012. Before joining UW-Stout, Phil spent 15 years in leadership positions at Saint Louis University. Phil has completed his PhD coursework in Higher Education Administration from Saint. Louis University. He earned a Master 's degrees in International Relations & Strategic Studies with an emphasis in Defense Economics from the University of Aberdeen. He also earned a Master of Science degree in Educational Administration from Southern Illinois University-Carbondale in Educational Administration.

Phil is married to Leslie Williamson Lyons. They are proud parents to three sons. Phil's youngest son attends South Middle School. Phil enjoys personal finance and investing, curling, running and playing golf.