

Week of April 14th - 17th checklist (No school Monday)

This is what your child should do throughout this week. This can be done at whatever time works best for your schedule. 5th grade teachers will be available to respond to questions between the hours of 8 am and 3 pm.

Math

Complete the 3 Think Central Assignments. (These are actually assigned on Think Central. The kids will click on the Think Central app, and instead of clicking on My Library, they will click on Things to Do. This will show the 3 different assignments.)

- 1.10 on Think Central
- 2.5 on Think Central
- 2.6 on Think Central
- Complete the Fluency Check assigned

Writing

- Make sure that your draft for Chocolate Milk Essay is complete and shared with your teacher
- Check Chocolate Milk Essay document for comments from your teacher and make any necessary edits
- Continue the journaling assignment (Here are the Journaling Assignment Directions)
 - The journaling assignment is also posted to Canvas under Language Arts and then Writing

Reading

- Complete four reading quizzes throughout the week (or more if you would like). They are titled Forward Reading Prompts and Learning From a Nonfiction Text. If you're caught up, that's great; check back next week!
- Check read aloud section of Canvas (under Language Arts Course) and listen daily
- Continue reading whatever other book you have at your level

Social Studies

- Make sure to work on completing your John White letter (if it isn't already done)
- Your letter is due at the end of the week. You can either type up your letter or take a picture of your yellow sheet, and send it to your teacher. Make sure if you take a picture that we can easily read it!

Homeroom

- Complete your weekly check in
- There will also be a class discussion to respond to

Use this as a guideline for the week. Please check in with your child's teacher if you have any questions!
