Penguin Random House	For Teachers and Educators providing distance learning to students in a virtual classroom setting: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Story time or classroom read-aloud videos in which a Penguin Random House book is read aloud and the book is displayed (for picture books) may be created and posted to closed educational platforms such as Google Classroom, Schoology, Edmodo and Discovery Education, in order to replicate the read-aloud book experience that would otherwise be available to educators in the classroom. • If a Teacher or Educator plans to share a story time video by recording a video, uploading it to a YouTube channel, and posting a link to that YouTube video inside a closed educational platform, that YouTube video must be designated as “Unlisted” (not “Public”) when uploading. See screenshot for how to choose “Unlisted” while uploading on YouTube. • These story time and classroom read-aloud videos may be hosted on the educational platform and/or YouTube (as an “Unlisted” file) until the end of the current school year, after which we request that they be removed from the educational platform and/or from YouTube, unless this permission is extended for the next school semester. Reporting requirements – We ask that all educators, librarians, and booksellers please complete this form in order to receive approval from Penguin Random House. If you have any questions, please email StoryTimeTempPermission@penguinrandomhouse.com.
Quarto	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Teachers, librarians, educators, caregivers, and parents are welcome to read any Quarto Group title to their students, patrons, and children via virtual means. However, please do not archive or save the recordings for continuous use. If being used as part of an educational curriculum, we ask that recordings be removed or disabled after 30 days. • Please mention at the beginning of your video that you are using the book with permission from The Quarto Group. • Please post your videos only via private platforms or within closed groups. • Please send your name, school/organization, city, state, and the title, author, and illustrator of the book you intend to read online to readings@quarto.com.
Scholastic	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. At the beginning of your video, please state that you are presenting your reading “with permission from Scholastic.” 2. Our preference is that you post your reading through your school's platform or another closed group or platform with limited access for your students. However, we recognize this may not be possible, in which case you may post it through a more publicly accessible platform, such as YouTube.

	3. Since we view this as a way to compensate for the closure of schools, please delete your video or disable access by the end of this current school year, no later than June 30, 2020. 4. Please reply to tradepublicity@scholastic.com with your name, school, city and state, and the title and author/illustrator of the book you intend to read online. By posting a reading, you are agreeing to abide by the above terms. 5. Finally, we would love to follow along with your read-aloud, so please tag Scholastic's social media handles in any posts affiliated with it! Twitter: @Scholastic Instagram: @ScholasticInc Facebook: @Scholastic YouTube: @Scholastic
Simon & Schuster	Simon & Schuster is pleased to provide resources and support as you navigate distance learning and bookselling in the weeks ahead. Please visit The Book Pantry website for reading group and teaching guides, author studies, and more at SimonandSchusterPublishing.com/TheBookPantry In addition, we will permit you to livestream and post readings of Simon & Schuster books online for your students and customers, subject to the following. By posting a reading, you are agreeing to these terms: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • At the beginning of your video, please state that you are reading the book “with permission from Simon & Schuster.” • We ask that you post your reading within the confines of your school, library, or store's platform or another closed group with limited access for your students and customers. However, for Ready-to-Reads, picture books, and any other younger formats, if this is not possible, you may post it through a public platform, such as YouTube. • For these younger formats, it is fine to read the entire book. For chapter books and novels, the readings should be limited to a few chapters. • Since this is a way to deal with the current extraordinary situation, your video should be deleted or access disabled by no later than June 30, 2020. • If you are an educator or librarian, email us at Education.Library@SimonandSchuster.com with your name, school, city, and state, and the title and author/illustrator of the book you intend to read online and the date.
Source Books	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • For Teachers and Educators who are looking to record and post content to replicate the classroom story time experience, we are happy to grant permission to temporarily create and post readings of Sourcebooks titles to closed educational platforms such as Google Classroom, Schoology,

Edmodo, and Discovery Education until the end of the school year, upon which the videos should be removed from the relevant platforms.

- Please note, all videos uploaded to YouTube for the purpose of sharing a link on a closed educational platform must be designated as “Unlisted” (or not “Public”) when they are uploaded to YouTube to ensure a closed system.
- Teachers and Educators may read and live stream Sourcebooks titles on YouTube, Facebook Live, Instagram Live, Twitter, or other live streaming platforms that are available to a closed school network. Live streams cannot be available to the public or recorded or permanently archived on any social media platforms. Live streams may be available for a 24-hour period after their initial recording. Please keep in mind that most social media platforms automatically archive live streams. After the 24-hour period has ended, all efforts must be made to ensure that all potential recordings and archives are deleted.
- Start your reading with “Read by permission from Sourcebooks” and please be sure to read the name of the author and illustrator
- Please notify us via email (addressed to marketing@sourcebooks.com) when you post your reading or live stream your event. The email should include the following:
 - Name and address of the library, school, or store
 - Title, author and ISBN of the book that is read
 - Contact information for the individual responsible for the reading
 - The educational or social media platform on which the video or live event is posted or held and a link to that video or live event

Videos must be taken down by the end of the school year or June 30, 2020, whichever is later, unless permission to extend the term has been obtained from Sourcebooks.
